A meeting of minds

Consulting and alternative legal services

Konexo, developed by Eversheds Sutherland, provides global consulting and alternative legal services to support in-house legal, compliance and HR functions. Our teams are based in the UK, the US and Asia.

We provide the full range of services – all supported by advanced technology, smart systems, and bright minds. From helping to design the optimum team, to providing interim resource, managed services and large-scale project support, we free you up to do what you do best – creative, strategic, essential work that impacts the future of your enterprise.

Services

Consulting

Legal Operations Consulting: helping you to optimize the way you deliver legal services. We have worked with dozens of teams on strategy, target operating models, process improvement and technology requirements. From small pieces of work to full transformation projects, we can help with all of your legal operations requirements.

Legal Technology Consulting: helping you with your legal technology requirements including defining your strategy, choosing the right technology, getting the most out of existing systems and helping with implementation of new solutions.

HR Consulting – UK: specialist HR consultants supporting HR and resourcing teams with coaching, training, project work and organizational change.

Legal Resourcing

UK, US & Asia: providing talented interim legal professionals to cover absences in your team, surges in demand or project related work. We have over 1,300 professionals in our community covering the full range of sectors and industries. Whether you require one person or an entire team, we can connect you quickly with experienced lawyers, paralegals and co-sec who can hit the ground running.

Financial Services risk and compliance

UK, US & Asia: a range of governance, conduct, compliance and financial crime related support to banks and other financial institutions. Our services include: s166 skilled persons reviews; assurance reviews; interim resourcing; and large-scale remediation and past business reviews.

Legal Services

Managed Services: we provide a complete solution for: (i) higher volume work such as commercial contracts; and (ii) the management of trademark portfolios, to enable the in-house team to focus on the strategic issues impacting your business. We combine our delivery centers in the UK and Malaysia with the latest technology and operational processes to deliver the work quickly and efficiently.

Projects: from one-off project management to full end-to-end delivery for large scale due diligence, contract analysis, data extraction or repapering and remediation activity, all underpinned by smart resourcing models, management information and sophisticated technology partnerships.

Litigation and Investigations Services: providing support to litigation and compliance teams through document review and eDiscovery for litigation, regulatory investigations, witness preparation and arbitration, deposition summaries, and privilege logs.

Regulatory Research – US: conducting research relating to regulation from property and casualty insurance to the latest privacy laws. Our experienced attorneys can provide the necessary support across US jurisdictions relating to financial services and other industry regulations.
